

TEEKANNE Herbal Wellness Tea donates $10,000 to Steffi Graf's Foundation Children for Tomorrow

Windsor, Connecticut (June 7, 2010) – TEEKANNE Herbal Wellness Tea announces today that it has donated $10,000 to the Children for Tomorrow Foundation, a foundation which provides assistance to children and families who have become victims of war, persecution and violence.

At a check presentation ceremony held in Las Vegas, Nevada, TEEKANNE representatives Sascha Braeuer, Member of the Board – Export and Shauna Collins, Senior Brand Manager TEEKANNE North America, were on hand to present the $10,000 check to Steffi Graf, Founder and Chairwoman of the Children for Tomorrow Foundation.

“TEEKANNE Herbal Wellness Tea is pleased to lend its support to the Children for Tomorrow Foundation, an organization dedicated to enhancing the lives and spirits of less fortunate children and families around the world who have seen and endured unimaginable acts of violence,” said Shauna Collins.

“I am honored to have a partner like TEEKANNE Herbal Wellness Tea lending its support to assist those in need. The Children for Tomorrow Foundation is highly focused on the mental wellbeing of children, which has been compromised in the face of conflict. Left untreated, psychological damage can often lead to unproductive, violent behavior in the future. Financial resources provided to Children for Tomorrow help to heal the psychological damage sustained by victims through the efforts of therapy,” states Steffi Graf.

About Children for Tomorrow

Children for Tomorrow is a non-profit foundation with the goal of supporting and initiating projects that provide assistance to children and families who have become victims of war, persecution and violence. These children have withstood terrifying experiences, some having lost their parents and close relatives. As a result of their psychological traumas, some have suffered from or still have sleep disorders, nightmares, depression or other symptoms. In order to overcome these traumas, psychotherapeutic therapy conducted by trained and qualified personnel is required. The financial resources from the Children for Tomorrow foundation serve to heal the psychological wounds within. For more information, visit www.children-for-tomorrow.de.
